

HUGHES FOR SECOND PLACE

The Party Leaders Would Force Nomination

PART OF FIXED PROGRAM

One Way to Save the State of New York—Politicians There Do Not Want Him Again for Governor.

Washington, April 22.—The nomination of Governor Hughes for Vice-President is said to be a part of the fixed program of the so-called administration Republicans. Within the last few days several prominent New York Republicans have said to the President that the governor must be forced before the people as a candidate for something if New York state is to be carried for the Republicans next fall. Those same enemies made it clear that the politicians of the Empire state do not want Hughes renominated for governor. The upshot of the conference that have been going on is a decision to force his nomination for vice-president if possible.

HUGHES NOT INCLINED TO YIELD.

Has Declared That He Will Not Accept Nomination For Vice-President.

Albany, N. Y., April 22.—Broad hints are given out by persons close to Governor Hughes that he may feel impelled shortly to issue in a formal manner a declaration he frequently has made privately, that in no circumstances will he permit the use of his name at Chicago for second place on the ticket with Secretary Taft or whoever else may be the nominee of that convention.

PRESBYTERIANS GAINED IN NEW ENGLAND.

Largely Through Influx of Scotch People, It Was Reported at Boston Presbyterian Meeting in Manchester.

Manchester, April 22.—Presbyterian delegates from churches in all the New England states, with the exception of Rhode Island, met in this city yesterday for the first of a three days' session of the synod of New York and Connecticut, having jurisdiction over Presbyterian churches in Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Vermont, and Connecticut. The annual meetings of the Presbyterians of this year finds the body with a membership considerably increased over that represented at past meetings, a constantly growing influx of Scotch operatives in textile centers having brought an almost corresponding growth in the number of Presbyterians in those places. This migration of Scotch operatives has been felt most in New England. Other textile districts have noticed it, but not in such great volume.

The meetings were held in the Westminster Presbyterian church and were attended by a varied gathering of Presbyterian workers. Denominational leaders, the foreign field and prominent laymen of the faith were all in attendance and the Woman's Missionary society had a large representation at the meeting.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar bottles. BRYAN'S GRANDSON GIVES HIM A SCARE.

Hides on Shipboard When the Nebraska Goes to the Pier to Meet the Family.

New York, April 22.—William J. Bryan's grandson, little Bryan Leavitt, gave the Democratic leader a bad scare yesterday. Mr. Bryan had gone to the pier to meet the steamer Minnehaha, upon which Mrs. Bryan, her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Leavitt, and Mrs. Leavitt's two children were returning from Europe. When the steamer swung in at the pier, Mr. Bryan was one of the first on board. He found Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Leavitt awaiting him on the upper deck. His granddaughter Ruth was also there, but little Bryan was nowhere to be seen. Officers of the ship were pressed into the search, but they were not successful. It was his mother who found him just when the anxious grandfather had about made up his mind that the child either had fallen overboard or had slipped ashore alone.

The boy had hidden himself under a berth in his mother's stateroom, and had remained there without a sound. When he was drawn out of his hiding place by his mother, little Bryan threw himself into his grandfather's arms and the big crowd which had gathered on the deck watched the meeting.

From the pier the family went at once to the Hoffman House. Mr. Bryan was obliged to leave them at once to fill an engagement in Trenton. He returned to Norfolk last evening, however, and remained with his family until they left for Nebraska to-day.

BEVERIDGE PLEADS IN VAIN FOR ROOSEVELT MEASURES.

Republican Steering Committee Does Not Seem Impressed.

Washington, April 22.—At a meeting of the Republican steering committee yesterday Senator Beveridge urged the committee to take up the president's program for four battleships, a modification of the Sherman law, and anti-injunction legislation. He said that unless these measures were acted on Republican campaign speakers would be embarrassed.

The committee did not seem much impressed. Senator Aldrich talked on the currency situation. He said it must be his bill or nothing, and he insisted that the Senate ought to stand by it.

The feeling of the committee was that the appropriation bills should be pushed and an effort made to adjourn about the middle of May.

NO PLANS FOR VENEZUELA.

America Is Awaiting the Action of Congress.

Washington, April 22.—That no plans have been matured to govern American intercourse with Venezuela in the future was stated yesterday by state department officials. Minister Russell, it is said here, probably will not leave Caracas pending possible action by the United States Congress on the five American claims now pending before the Senate committee on foreign relations. It is understood that this committee is to deal with the Venezuelan question to-day. It is stated at both the state and navy departments that the question of sending a naval vessel to Venezuelan waters will not be considered unless the situation changes.

He has accepted the opinion of the attorney general that the measure is constitutional and has waived any suspicion he might have had to the contrary.

The president is convinced that the bill will stand the test in the courts.

THEY HEARD SPEECHES.

Officers of the Fleet Listened to Numerous Addresses of Welcome.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 22.—Speeches were made at the banquet to admirals and commanding officers of the fleet and their staffs Monday night by General Schaff, Robert J. Burdette, Bishop County, Governor Gillette, Admiral Thomas and others.

It was nearly one o'clock when Admiral Thomas rose to respond to the many addresses of welcome. The admiral paid a splendid tribute to Admiral Evans and expressed the earnest hope that the commander-in-chief might so far recover his health as to lead the fleet into the Golden Gate.

Wishing to demonstrate his sincerity, the professor now says he is ready to embrace Catholicism.

Owing to a high wind, help was summoned from Biddeford and Saco. With this aid the fire was got under control. The loss will be $4,000. The house of Jefferson Kenney on Atlantic avenue and the Lord cottage were destroyed.

Romance of Transmission.

Cautiously trailing through some shadowy canyon of the Nierras, perhaps with treacherous footing along the bed of a turbulent mountain stream, sheer, craggy walls of rock rising on either side to sixty, eighty, or one hundred feet, from which every vista of living green has been torn by the spring torrents and above which again mount three or four hundred feet of steep, forest-clad slopes, the keen eye of hunter or prospector may sometimes light upon two or three wires swinging in a crescent high above the feathered tops of the pines. The span from supporting peak to supporting peak may be two hundred or two thousand feet.

If the explorer is a stranger and unacquainted with the peculiarities of the country his first thought will be of telegraph or telephone. But the old hand knows better, and if a hunter, will probably ejaculate with an oath: "Transmission!"

With this introduction, George Frederic Stratton writes a remarkable article on the "Romance of Transmission" in the Technical World Magazine for May. It gives a striking picture of the wonderful work being done in developing our natural resources, while touching upon the inspiring side of the engineer's labors. The article is admirably illustrated.

PAPER "TRUST" INVESTIGATION

To Be Made by Special House Committee

RESOLUTION IS ADOPTED

The Evidence of Combination Is to Be Taken—774 Newspapers Join in the Protest Against the Trust.

Washington, April 22.—The House yesterday adopted Speaker Cannon's resolution authorizing the appointment of a committee to investigate the so-called paper trust and the general subject of wood pulp and the manufacture of printing paper. The resolution provides for a select committee of six, and was passed under suspension of the rules.

In explanation of the resolution Mr. Dabell of Pennsylvania said it was a matter of large increase in the price of paper. Never, he declared, had there been such an agitation as had been aroused by the newspapers within the past few weeks. While there was a consensus of opinion as to the increase, there was no consensus as to the cause of that increase. It was, he said, capable of mathematical demonstration that the increase was not due to the tariff, and he contended that it would not be changed by a removal of the tariff. However that may be, he added, there were those who believed that the increase was due to a combination or trust, and it was necessary to get the facts upon which to base a bill to meet the case.

In the opinion of Mr. Williams, the minority leader, the rise in price was due "both to the tariff and the combination—and the condition is due to the tariff." If, he said, it had been intended to kill the combination it could have been done by putting wood pulp and print paper on the free list.

Following close upon the House action the paper manufacturers are up in arms over the effort to remove the tariff from wood pulp, and a number of them is descending on Washington. F. J. Sensenbrenner and George Whiting of Nebraska, Wis., General Manager McNeil of the Northern Paper company of Minnesota, and former Representative Webster Brown of Wisconsin are already here representing the manufacturers. They are conferring with Representatives Payne and Dabell, and will see Speaker Cannon and other leaders and seek to show them why the tariff should not be removed.

New York, April 22.—At the annual meeting of the Associated Press in this city yesterday, and in advance of knowledge of the action by the House cited above, an address to the president and Congress was adopted asking for immediate relief from the "exactions of combinations of paper makers," and denouncing as false the prices of print paper recently furnished to Congress by the director of the census bureau.

COLDS AND GRIP

A Home Treatment Better Than Drugging

The best general treatment for colds and influenza is better than drugging, is to create bodily warmth to make up for the heat that is lost. Treat it at the beginning by a hot bath, or if not convenient to get into a bath tub take hot mustard and water foot bath, and go to bed at once, taking a hot drink of lemonade, milk, tea, or other non-alcoholic drink. Rub briskly over the throat and chest with Sleep between blankets, be careful to keep the arms and body well covered, and remember that the sweating is evidence that you are overcoming the cold, so above all don't undo the benefit by throwing off the clothes if you feel a little uncomfortable. A thorough rubbing of the throat and chest with Minard's Liniment will, besides giving relief, do much to prevent recurrence of the cold, and also be strong measure of protection against any of the serious complications resulting from colds.

AUSTRALIA'S HORROR.

Forty-two Bodies Taken from Wreckage of Two Trains.

Melbourne, Australia, April 22.—Forty-two bodies have been taken out of the wreckage caused by the collision April 19 of two trains from Ballarat and Bendigo respectively at Braybrook Junction. It is believed that several others are still buried under the debris. The number of passengers injured is placed at 88. Many of the victims had entered the Ballarat train at Braybrook and were just about settling in their seats when the crash came. The conductor had signalled to the engineer to start the train and was in the act of stepping into the car when he saw the approaching Bendigo train. He sprang aside in time to save himself. The station was in darkness and a scene of horror followed the collision. Three of the cars took fire. Many of the victims were burned beyond recognition. A member of the fire brigade found the bodies of his two sisters buried in the wreckage. Several of the victims died as they were being lifted from the wreckage.

The driver of the Bendigo train says that he saw the signals and when the brakes failed to act he reversed the engine, but was unable to check the train.

MOVEMENTS CONFIRMED

The Grand Duke Nicholas Goes South—To Investigate the Persian Frontier Trouble, It Is Reported.

St. Petersburg, April 22.—Dispatches setting forth the grave situation of the Russian detachment in Persia are fully confirmed by official reports received at the foreign office from the Russian commander at Yelisevpetol, in trans-Caucasia, ninety miles from Tiflis.

Grand Duke Nicholas Nikolaievitch departed quietly from here Monday for the Crimea, traveling incognito in an ordinary coach, instead of by private car. The trip ostensibly is for personal reasons, and it is stated will be of short duration, but the grand duke's departure just previous to the imperial family reunion for the Easter festivities and for the marriage of Grand Duchess Marie Pavlovna to Prince Wilhelm of Sweden is considered an indication of a more important object. It is reported that the grand duke is really on his way to the Caucasus to make a personal inspection both of the Persian and Turkish frontiers, where the situation is arousing considerable apprehension. Despite diplomatic denials, Russia continues to forward re-enforcements and munitions of war to the Caucasus. An American traveler returning from that territory recently states that he saw train after train loaded with soldiers proceeding in a southern direction, and the railroad to Kara is so swamped with military stores that it is unable to accept private freight. The European military attaches especially the German, are evincing keen interest in regard to the general situation, and have made a number of official inquiries, but the general staff reiterates that the measures are purely precautionary on the part of Russia and are designed to repair the negligence of past years in order to put the Turkish-Persian frontier in a normal condition for defense.

News was received here yesterday that the Persian brigands who Monday advanced to attack the Russian forces in Persian territory were driven back with heavy losses and retired to the mountains. The Russian detachment from Releswar has again advanced a short distance into Persian territory, where it awaits re-enforcements. There is no sign as yet of the heralded Persian expedition to aid the Russians.

The governor has ordered that measures of sanitation be applied La Guayra."

Today a majority of the customers received ten yards of silk thread.

MINISTER TO VENEZUELA MAY DELAY HIS VACATION.

Uncertain Status of Dispute With Castro Given as Cause.

Caracas, Venezuela, April 19, via Willemstad, Curacao, April 22.—Although Minister Russell intended to sail for New York on April 17 on his annual leave of absence, it is possible that the exigencies of the present very delicate diplomatic situation may make his departure inadvisable until congress makes some definite decision as to what it is going to do with the Venezuela question.

THREATENS DEATH TO A MILLIONAIRE.

Unknown Enemy Sends Letter to Charles G. Tousey For Doing Deed of Charity.

New York, April 22.—"If you or any male member of your family come to Great Neck this year you will never leave it alive." So begins an illiterate scrawl received by Charles G. Tousey, a millionaire, on his return from Florida, where he passed the winter with his family, in his summer residence at Roslyn, L. I., overlooking Manhasset Bay.

The threatening letter which bears no "Black Hand," or any clue to its writer, runs on: "Go to Roslyn, where you gave your money to them devils that did not need it. We have watched for this chance. We have watched you all last summer; this year will tell. We know how dead you are. We give you a chance to stay away. If you come it is your risk."

Mr. Tousey said: "A foreigner was murdered near here some time ago. I learned that his wife and family were aboard ship coming to America. To prove to the widow that she was arriving among a people not devoid of sympathy or charity I sent $50 to William Witte, then postmaster at Roslyn, to give her. Three months later she married again and is living about three miles from Roslyn. I am informed. I am sure my intentions were good in helping the widow."
